Reading Survey

Name _____ Date _____

First, name 2 of your favorite books. These can be books you have read on your own or books you heard someone else read to you!

Then, rate each of them with 1, 2, or 3 ☺ faces.

Finally, give a reason for each rating. Tell me why you liked each book.

Title	Rating	Reason for Rating

Now, name 2 of your favorite TV shows or movies!

Title	Rating	Reason for Rating

What do you like to do after school when you have free time?

What is your favorite subject in school? Why?

What is your least favorite subject in school? Why?

Rate the following descriptions of books by what you would most likely enjoy reading.

☺ = I would love to read this!	☹ = I might like this book. I'm not sure.	☹ = This is not something I want to read!
--------------------------------	---	---

-----	a book about a kid with special powers. They have to keep it a secret from their friends and family	-----	a book about a kid who gets mad and decides to run away
-----	a book of funny poems that are about the silly things people do	-----	a book about what life is like in another country
-----	a book that tells you a famous person's life story	-----	a book about a kid who moves into a house that was built 100 years ago and discovers a ghost
-----	a book about kids who can travel through time to solve different problems	-----	a book about the planets, stars, or outer space
-----	a book about gross and disgusting animals and plants	-----	a book about friends who help each other with difficult problems

Circle the sentence(s) that best describe you.

I like picking out the books I read.	Sometimes I get confused when I am reading.
I always get frustrated when I am reading.	I understand most of what I read.
I get bored or sleepy when I read.	I need help finding good books to read.

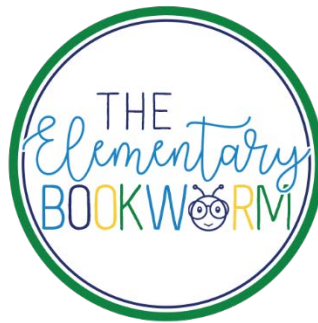

A decorative border surrounds the page, featuring a repeating pattern of colorful bookworms (green, yellow, and blue) holding books. The bookworms are arranged in a line, with some holding books open as if reading. The books are in various colors (red, yellow, blue, orange) and are stacked vertically between the bookworms.
